The President's Welcome

It is with great pleasure that we are presenting the 26th Tacoma Highland Games to you this year! A lot of people worked hard to make this all possible! The Competitors, the Clans, the Vendors, all help make this day a great spectacle for our little area of Pierce County. Some have traveled great distances to compete, show their wares, or just talk about family trees and Clans. Thank you all for coming and participating!

This year for the first time we will have several breeds of Scottish Dogs and a couple breeds will be putting on demonstrations. Please feel free to ask any questions or concerns you may have as I am sure these persons will be glad to explain anything you would like to know concerning the Dogs.

We will also have Highland Cattle for you to see for the first time at Tacoma-Pierce County Highland Games.

On behalf of the TPCHG members, volunteers, Board members, and Officers, please enjoy the "Day in Scotland" we worked so hard to bring you! Remember we can always put your talents to good use!

PIPE MAJOR WILLIAM MICENKO

WEST HIGHLAND WHITE TERRIERS

The West Highlands of Scotland were once a plateau rising from the North Atlantic. They have suffered much erosion and fairly recently, geologically speaking, have subsided into the ocean. In the coastal regions, the eroded valleys have become submerged and are now fiords, or firths, leaving the rocky eminences remaining. In the rugged, craggy countryside, small, short-legged terriers were needed for hunting game like otters, badgers, foxes and wildcats. These animals made their lairs in the rocks, between the rocks, and under rocks. The dogs had to be able to follow the animal where ever it went—into narrow passages, between roots, and between rocks that could not be budged—and often totally in the dark. The dogs usually worked in packs, barking when they sighted game and bringing their quarry to ground. The small, flat-ribbed West Highland White Terriers (Westies) were ideal for this work. If a dog's ribs were too round, he could easily become lodged and not be able to move, causing him to starve or crack his ribs in the effort to extricate himself. The dog also needs the intelligence to outwit a crafty opponent quickly and decisively.

Picture the speed, stamina, determination, and courage such a dog would need for this work and you understand the Westie. This staunch little dog is the product of generations of hardy hunters, fleet of foot and seemingly impervious to the salt spray and the icy winters of the North Atlantic coast. If necessary he could hunt his own food and survive the winters with only a little shelter. But, he could be equally at home by his master's hearth, sharing the warmth of his companionship and the fire, welcoming friends, and warning away intruders.

The Westie is big enough to really be a dog but small enough to go in the car or to share your easy chair. He enjoys the outdoors, regardless of weather, but fits nicely into a small apartment. His beautiful white coat is easy to keep clean with a brush. He is virtually shedless and does not develop "doggy odor". He looks like a stuffed toy, but he is wonderfully alive. Basically the Westie disposition is sweet, loving and loyal, but he is not at all subservient. As the breed standard says, he has "no small amount of self esteem." A Westie has a great sense of personal worth, which is one of his most endearing qualities. When a guy knows he's great, it's hard to be humble...

Chieftain of the Games
Charles (Charlie) McNeill

He has attended all the Northwest games and Clan gatherings since 1957. His active involvement in the Scottish community over the past thirty eight years is why Charles McNeill was asked to be Chieftain of the Games for 1995 and has gladly accepted.

Charles was born in Glasgow, Scotland. He took a liking to the pipes at the age of 15. From 1945 to 1948, he served in the Highland Light Infantry as a piper.

In 1956, Charlie emigrated to the United States, Joining his brother (Jim McNeill) in the greater Seattle area. In 1959, he met his wife Lois and on July 30th of this year, they will celebrate their 36 years of marriage, together. They have raised two children, Margaret and James. Margaret Nelson is a member of the Tacoma Scots Pipe Band.

He joined the Seattle Pipe Band in 1956. Later he became Pipe sergeant and then Pipe Major. He now plays with the Puget Sound Pipers. But, he still takes time to do his greatest love, which is teaching the young and old The Art of Piping!

Master of Ceremonies for this 1995 Games
“Joseph W. MacIntyre”

Mr. MacIntyre is currently the International Vice-President of Clan MacIntyre Association, a member of the Seattle Scottish Highland Games Association, the Scottish American Military Society and has lived in Scotland for two years and has been active in promoting awareness of Scottish culture for more than 30 years in many parts of the World including Italy and Panama.

We welcome Mr. MacIntyre as our Master of Ceremonies for the Tacoma-Pierce County Highland Twenty Sixth Annual Games!

Oregon Pipers Society has a Junior Band and there are three junior bands in Vancouver, B.C. Such an undertaking would be a great opportunity to introduce young people to Scottish Music and insure the preservation of this music in the Puget Sound Area.
